

Psalms Notes

Book One: Psalms 1–41

1. *Two Ways of Life Contrasted

Theme:

Two roads for life

Summary:

Blessed is the righteous person (1:1)

What the righteous person does (1:2,3)

The fate of the ungodly person (1:4,5)

The Lord knows the way you walk (1:6)

Capsule Thought:

The way of the righteous leads to God and eternal life; the way of the ungodly leads to ruin and death.

Thought Questions:

How is the righteous person like a tree?

How is the ungodly person like chaff?

2. *Coronation of the Lord's Anointed

Theme:

The coronation of God's King

Summary:

A Royal Psalm

Plotting against the new king (2:1-3)

God laughs and makes promises to the new king (2:4-9)

An exhortation to submit (2:10-12)

Capsule Thought:

God laughs at the foolishness of rebellious people. Those who rebel against God's anointed will face his judgment. We find an important reference here in vs. 12, the king is God's Son.

Thought Question:

Why is this considered to be a messianic psalm?

3. *Victory in the Face of Defeat

Theme:

God is our shield
